Important Notice!

Network Social Singles will enter the 21st century. Newsletters will no longer be mailed to those members who are Internet connected. The March newsletter will be the last paper copy to go out to everyone. Our web page www.networksingles.org will be the best and latest place to go for new or last minute activity information. Those of you who don't have computers will still receive your mail copy, but the information could be 'stale'. We hope you will check us out on the web and join us for our Happy Hours, games, and other activities. See you soon!

Thank you

Well, how about that Super Bowl??? Did your team win? Although no bets were place, and no one walked away with some cash in their pockets, we all had a fun time at Ron Turi's home for our Super Bowl Party. We had a delicious ham, lots of potluck dishes to share, and our own 'football cake' for dessert. We just had to get it away from Michael Matz! Linda DeWitt was Ron's #1 aid/assistant, and she did a wonderful job. They made us all feel very welcome, and made sure there was plenty of seating and everyone could see the game. Thanks so much having the party. Check out our website for some pictures: www.networksingles.org.
